This student is eligible for accommodations due to a documented disability and has current documentation on file with the WJU Disability Services Office. These accommodations are rights ensured under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and its Amendments and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Title II of the ADA provides that no individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, program or activities of a public entity, or be subjected to discrimination by any such entity.

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 prohibits the exclusion, the denial of benefits, and discrimination by reason of disability in programs or activities receiving federal funds.

Your cooperation and assistance are necessary to ensure this student's equal access and to promote academic success while enrolled at Wheeling Jesuit University. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Director of Disability Services.

This student has authorized disclosure of the following accommodations:

1. Student may take all tests – quizzes, tests, mid-term and final exams – either on campus at the Testing Center or online with extended time in a low distraction environment (the course instructor will need to provide extra time for online tests).
2. Student may request lecture notes from faculty, if available.
3. Student may utilize recorded textbooks.
4. Student may request enlarged printed course and testing materials.
