Student Affairs

Wheeling Jesuit’s Division of Student Affairs is dedicated to assisting students by providing quality support, co-curricular activities and developmental programs. Wheeling Jesuit University is committed to the academic and social development of each student including his or her intellect, values, emotions and purpose. Student Affairs’ goal is to empower students to become ethical decision makers, spiritual life discerners, global leaders and engagers in the pursuit of personal knowledge that leads to community and self-fulfillment.

An integral part of the WJU academic environment, Student Affairs provides a holistic view to educating students. By providing activities and leadership opportunities beyond the classroom, Student Affairs assist the University in producing students who can and will contribute to the community and help each to become more competent, virtuous and responsible citizens.

New Student Programs

Beginning with the summer orientation sessions and continuing throughout most of the fall semester, an orientation program is conducted on the campus for all new students including transfer students. A variety of activities are offered to give some idea of the dimensions of the collegiate experience. In the fall, welcome weekend begins before the start of classes (usually the 3 or 4 days preceding the first day of classes), during which new students may adjust to their surroundings, meet classmates, settle into a new room and familiarize themselves with the campus and its services.

Meetings with faculty advisors, socials and discussions on student life, help the new student become acquainted with Wheeling Jesuit University. The orientation programs, under the direction of the Student Life staff and a group of specially trained upperclassmen called Luceats, provides an opportunity for all new students and their parents to adjust to the collegiate experience.

The First Year Program (FYP), which includes the First Year Seminar, a one-credit course taken in the fall semester, is designed for first year students and covers a wide variety of topics, both academic and social.

Housing and Residence Life

Since the majority of the University’s undergraduate students reside on campus, special emphasis is given to the seven residence halls and their programs. The residence program is an essential part of the student’s life, as it can provide the union of learning with the art of living. Freshman and sophomore students who do not reside with their parent(s) or legal guardian within a reasonable commuting distance from home are required to live on-campus. The Resident Life staff informs students of University policies and rules and assists them in their adjustment to the University environment. All students living on campus must utilize a meal plan. Freshmen (0-27 credit hours) may choose the top meal plan. Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors have additional options.

On-campus living provides a balance of challenge and support for residents, allowing residents to learn about themselves and others and to take responsibility for themselves and their development. Therefore, the role of Resident Life is to contribute to the development of residents through the creation of diverse and positive living environments.

Resident Life also develops programs and activities for all students, residents and commuters. Commuters are strongly encouraged to become active in campus life at Wheeling Jesuit. A special “On-Resident Life Experience” may be offered in the spring semester, if space is available, to commuters interested in having an opportunity to experience living in a residence hall.

This organization also sponsors dances and various other campus events. The Office utilizes the campus coffee shop to provide acoustic evenings, pool and ping pong and a video library. CAB annually works with the Student Government Association and other campus organizations in events such as Welcome Week, Family Weekend and Last Blast.

The Office, with the assistance of the Rathskeller Board (students and faculty), also oversees the operation of the Rathskeller. The

The Rathskeller observes all state and local laws concerning alcohol consumption and provides a variety of non-alcoholic beverages for underage students and those who choose not to consume alcohol.

In cooperation with the Student Government Association, the Office oversees the campus Intramural Program. The Intramural Program is directed by student commissioners who plan and implement the various offerings such as flag football, basketball, kick-ball and other seasonal sports and activities.

All WJU students are encouraged to participate in or take advantage of these various programs. Most events sponsored by the Office of Campus Activities and Recreation Programs, CAB and the campus Intramural Program are free of charge to WJU students.

The English Language Institute

Through short, intensive courses, students acquire the knowledge of English necessary for travel, professional or occupational communication, or admission to a U.S. institution of higher education. To offer the most effective education, class sizes tend to be small. University students in turn benefit from interactions with these students from other countries. While home stays with American families are also available, many of the English Language Institute students reside on campus and use the library, the Benedum Room and other University facilities. Some complete the English Language Institute program and enter Wheeling Jesuit University. The University and its students strive to make these students feel welcome and at ease in what to them is a very new and different environment.

Wellness & Retention Services

Wellness Program

The Wellness Program stipulates that a well-educated person is one who has explored varied opportunities for growth during the university years and emerges as an involved and productive member of society – confident, competent and enlightened by shared experiences with fellow human beings.

Since no single formula for growth will satisfy the needs of all individuals, students must assume an active role in the design of their own plan for development. This plan must incorporate the eight dimensions of the program: career development, emotional, cultural/intellectual, physical, risk prevention, sexual, social concern and spiritual. Students gain credits through a variety of workshops, seminars, sports activities, retreats, the arts, lectures and community service, representative of the eight dimensions.

As a graduation requirement, each student must participate in at least two separate offerings for each of the eight dimensions. Under the direction of the Vice President for Student Affairs, the program produces people who are committed to a lifestyle of health and service to the human community.

Student Rights & Responsibilities

Wheeling Jesuit University as an educational institution is committed to providing for its students a campus environment in which serious study and learning can take place. The University considers all students, residents and non-residents as its partners in the responsibility of creating and maintaining that environment. All students are expected to conduct themselves accordingly and are expected to abide by all the policies and regulations of the University as a condition of academic acceptance to the University. While many such policies and regulations are discussed in this catalog, students are expected to be familiar with the University’s academic catalog and other publications regarding such matters.

Judicial authority in non-academic affairs is vested in the Division of Student Affairs through the Vice President for Student Affairs and his/her delegates. The judicial process is described in the Judicial Process and Sanctions section of the WJU Student Handbook.
