(See description of Business with a concentration in International Business major in the Business section, p. 36)

International Studies

Director: Chris Scholl, Ph.D.

The International Studies major is both interdisciplinary and cross-cultural. The flexible nature of the program allows students to concentrate in one of two areas: the humanities or social sciences. The flexibility of this major allows students to pursue a second major (see p. 16 of the catalog for information on double majors).

Upon completion of the International Studies program, students will:

1. Have a better understanding of contemporary global issues (e.g., environment, development, conflict, population, global economy).
2. Have an awareness of the cultural diversity within the world community.
3. Have a clear understanding of the political and economic relations among the countries of the world.
4. Place current global issues into proper historical context.
5. Have solid foundation in a foreign language of their choice.
