

MASTER OF EDUCATION LEADERSHIP (MEL)

By enrolling in the Master of Education Leadership (MEL) degree program at Wheeling Jesuit University, working educators can earn a master's degree in as little as one year, entirely online.

Program paths include:

- + School or School System Leadership (for principal or superintendent licensure)
- + Instructional Leadership (for teachers)

This 33-credit online graduate program offers multiple start dates and the flexibility for completion in one year or more. West Virginia licensure is transferable to most other states through reciprocity agreements. An educator currently holding a master's degree in education may design his or her own course work through the Sequence of Study Certificate Program.
