WJU’s Global Reach
Dear Friends,

Following a long and cherished tradition of the Church, remembering and commending those who have died to the love and mercy of God, the Office of Campus Ministry and the Jesuit community invites you to join us during the month of November as we remember our departed friends and family members who have gone before us to share in the Resurrection of Christ.

We invite you to share with us in the Masses, and ask that you send the names of your loved ones who have died. We will place their names at the foot of the alter in our Chapel of Mary and Joseph, and dedicate our Masses and prayers during the month of November, 2009, to your intentions.

Remember, O Lord, Thy servants who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith, and sleep in the sleep of peace...

HONOR ROLL
24 2009 Honor Roll
Dear Alumni and Friends,

As a proud graduate of our University and your acting President, I want to welcome you to this issue of Chronicle. Along with our students, you — our alumni and friends — are my personal focus.

Recently we had a change in leadership, but please be assured that only the best interests of the University was at the heart of the matter. Like you, I am fond of Wheeling Jesuit. Like you, I know the value of a Jesuit education is recognized worldwide. And also like you, I am aware of the overall mission of our alma mater, is to provide a rigorous education under the banner of “life, leadership and service.”

I am pleased to report that our mission has not changed.

Just as the Ignatian values have remained the same for more than 450 years, we remain fixed on our Jesuit values – Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam – really does mean to seek to do all for the greater glory of God and we share that sentiment with our students.

I believe that “finding God in all things” is one of the most comforting Jesuit ideals, and I hope that you will remain with us in spirit as we work to find God in our current transformation of this beautiful institution during the coming months.

I am invigorated by the start of fall classes and the renewing sense of getting down to business. I am humbled by your trust and plan to work hard for our success.

The campus community remains committed to continued achievement in the world of higher education and we welcome you to visit, comment and pray for our work as we embrace another class of eager young students who we plan to lead into the world of Jesuit alumni.

As St. Ignatius placed great emphasis on seeking, in every choice we make, the decision that results in the “greater good,” I am sure that Wheeling Jesuit University is moving in that direction.

With highest personal regards,

J. Davitt McAteer ’66, J.D.
Acting President

On Aug. 20, this statement was released to all the U.S. Jesuit college and university presidents:

I support the action of the Wheeling Jesuit Board of Trustees and the University’s efforts to move forward in a positive manner, while the search for a permanent president is undertaken. The Society of Jesus remains steadfast in its commitment to Wheeling Jesuit University, the youngest of the Jesuit colleges and universities in the U.S.

University Freezes Tuition for 2009 – 2010

The University has frozen graduate and undergraduate tuition for the 2009-2010 academic year.

“Higher learning is a critically important reality in American culture. It’s also expensive. Although Wheeling Jesuit University has always tried to keep the seemingly inevitable rise of tuition at an affordable rate, the present national and international financial crisis demands a more radical response,” said Acting President J. Davitt McAteer. “In keeping with our commitment to justice, competency and compassion, we have decided to keep tuition as affordable as possible. Thus, we are freezing our tuition rate for 2009 - 2010.”

The tuition freeze announcement complements a letter sent to students that detailed the University’s willingness to work with parents and families if they encounter financial setbacks due to the shaky world economy.

Wheeling Jesuit’s undergraduate tuition stands at $11,795 per semester or $23,590 per year. Total graduate costs vary according to program, but are calculated at $500 per credit hour, and adult students enrolled in the popular Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Leadership (BOLD) program, pay $4,640 per term or $13,920 per year. None of these will see a tuition increase.

Scholarship Symposium Offers Undergrads Chance to Prep for Grad School & Beyond

Sixteen WJU students took home top prizes during the annual Undergraduate Research and Scholarship Symposium.

More than 65 undergraduates presented research either orally or in poster form during the daylong symposium in April. Jeff Smith ’03 delivered the keynote speech at the opening ceremonies this year.

During his speech, Smith asked students to think about their life and their direction. He encouraged everyone to make a list of things that they would most like to accomplish and then review it frequently.

Smith said that from his own experience, they should not be afraid to try new things and to “discover and experience life.” He described the need to take many roads as he read the famous poem, “The Road Not Taken” by Robert Frost.

The symposium winners included:

Social and behavioral sciences poster winners: Tim Wright and Jonathan Kolks.

Health sciences poster winner: James Huff.

Social and behavioral sciences oral presentation winner: Tim Wright.
Students and faculty were recognized in March during the annual Spring Honors Convocation. The keynote speaker was the Rev. Harry Geib, S.J., of Campus Ministry and this year’s Administrator of the Year. He spoke on running the race and made reference to carrying the baton and passing on knowledge and assistance to our neighbors. His inspiring speech encouraged all students to look at others with compassion and offer assistance when appropriate.

Faculty honors were then announced and included: Amanda Wakim, promoted to assistant professor of nursing; Craig Ruby - completed his Doctor of Education and was promoted to assistant professor of physical therapy; Marc Brodie and Michael Kirkpatrick, both granted tenure in fall 2008, which takes effect in fall of 2010-2011. Additionally the 2008-09 Collegians of the Year were announced. They were Maria Petrasko, freshman; Dahee Kim, sophomore; and Eric Steele, junior.

The Francis Xavier Award is the highest award given to a community member by Student Government and recognizes leadership and service. This year’s Award was presented to Sr. Kathleen Durkin ’71, CSJ. The class decided to acknowledge a second person who exemplifies the spirit of this award, Sr. Joanne Gonter ’59, VHM.

Eighteen various honor societies welcomed new members on stage and presented the members with medals or honor cords.

Rebecca Olsavsky
Sara Fowler

Two Wheeling area high school graduates received $100,000 scholarships to attend Wheeling Jesuit University.

In February the University announced that Rebecca Olsavsky of The Linsly School and Sara Fowler of Wheeling Central Catholic would receive $100,000 Laut scholarships.

The two students competed for the scholarship in January, going up against 20 seniors from all over the country.

The Stephen J. Laut, S.J., Memorial Scholarships are awarded annually to two incoming freshmen. The competition is open to high school seniors with a 3.4 cumulative high school average and a combined score of 1100 on the SAT or a composite score of 24 on the ACT.
Higher Learning Commission Accreditation Team Visit Ends with Positive Exit Interview

In April the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools submitted a report recommending continuing the University’s accreditation for another 10 years.

During the April exit interview, the HLC team indicated that the University is not only compliant with re-accreditation requirements, it exceeds the benchmarks in many areas.

“The team’s positive decision to recommend to the Higher Learning Commission the lifting of any sanctions on our master’s programs is a clear sign of our maturity and trust-worthiness as a University in the Jesuit tradition,” said Vice President for Academics, Dr. Letha Zook.

The University engaged in a lengthy process of self-evaluation, identifying strengths and weaknesses in preparation for the HLC visit. The self-study document and supporting materials were presented to the visiting team several months prior to their April 6 arrival on campus.

At the exit interview, held in front of a large audience of faculty, staff and administrators, Dr. Richard Butler, spokesman for the five-person HLC team, stated that the team turned up no real problems that would inhibit accreditation. He announced that the team is recommending the lifting of the stipulation on graduate programs in the discipline areas of business and health care. The University will be able to start new masters’ programs in these areas without individual approval by HLC upon acceptance of the team’s recommendation.

Service Takes University Students to El Salvador in January

Fourteen WJU students traveled to El Salvador in January for a seven-day service immersion experience.

Led by Dr. Debra Hull, psychology department chair, Amanda Wakim, nursing instructor and Erin McDonald, director of the Service for Social Action Center, the trip was the first international effort of the Wheeling Jesuit service office.

The service trip was designed for Wheeling Jesuit’s Arrupe scholars and senior nursing students. Students worked in a variety of Salvadoran ministries such as a rural medical clinic, an orphanage for malnourished children, a program for street kids, and building projects.

Students who took part in the trip to El Salvador included: Jill Nizan, Renee Stewart, Valerie Grimes, Kelley Buckman, Katie Beiter, Ryan Ferris, Brittany Gorczyca, Shawna Kerns, Adriane Little, Mailey Petrie, Becky Richards, Megan Richards, Jenelle Starling and Liz Yanni.
Hundreds of students, faculty and community members turned out March 28 for WJU’s Culture Fest, hosted annually by the Office of International Studies.

Held in the McDonough Center, the event was a great opportunity to experience different cultures through food, music and dance, as the students showcased their native lands.

Dancers entertained the crowd as they performed native dance from the countries of Greece, the Ukraine, Russia and Italy. Additional music and other entertainment with a global focus completed the program.

Food from Belize, Cameroon, China, Congo, France, Greece, Vietnam, Italy, Japan, South Korea, Nepal, Philippines, Russia, Rwanda, Spain, Mexico, Trinidad, Uzbekistan, and Egypt was served at booths manned by the students and open to all.

With support from the International Student Club and funding from Student Government, Culture Fest also encourages global thinking and diversity.

A total of 20 countries were represented, said Eileen Viglietta, director of the international student center and the English Language Institute.
NASA Funds WJU Center to Develop Astronomy, Earth Science Courses

NASA funding of almost $750,000 will allow the Center for Educational Technologies® to develop online courses on astronomy and Earth science for high school students.

The primary grant recipient for the CET project is Anne Arundel County Public Schools in Maryland. The CET’s share of the grant is about $750,000 for two years. The Center will partner with the school system to develop and teach an online course about the solar system and also contribute to astronomy and Earth science courses. It will also lead a social networking component and the project’s overall evaluation. Also working on the project are teachers at Anne Arundel Community College and the University of Maryland, Baltimore County.

“High school students in West Virginia will benefit by collaborating with students elsewhere in exploring astronomy and Earth science concepts, based on NASA discoveries and images, while earning both high school and college credits online,” said Chuck Wood, executive director of the Center for Educational Technologies®.

The two online courses, to be called NASA Earth & Space, will be designed for high school juniors and seniors. These separate, one-semester courses each will consist of six mission modules. Students will perform as mission scientists to explore major concepts in Earth and space science, using NASA mission data and research. Each mission will be guided by a mission director/instructor and will use a project-based learning format, with students immersed in social networking software for online collaboration.

Challenger Learning Center Flies First Missions for Kyrgyzstan, Pakistan

Children in Kyrgyzstan and Pakistan got a taste of NASA science through the Challenger Learning Center® earlier this year.

Through Challenger’s e-Mission™ distance learning program, students and their teachers joined flight directors in Wheeling to fly the missions that are based on NASA science. The Hope Academy of Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan, took part in the Operation Montserrat e-Mission. Their teacher, Jennifer Cummings, had contacted the Challenger Learning Center about the e-Mission after seeing it highlighted on an educational website.

Lead Flight Director Lori Kudlak guided the students from the Wheeling location. “I don’t think I’ve ever flown a mission with that much energy from the students. They were focused, on task and well prepared. This was a very successful mission,” she said.

Students at Karachi High School in the capital of Pakistan participated in the Moon, Mars, and Beyond e-Mission.
Electronic Health Records Seminars Held in Charleston & Princeton

Electronic health records (EHRs) have gotten a lot of attention recently, especially since President Barack Obama is making e-records part of his economic recovery plan to save jobs and more importantly, to help save lives.

Since 2005, the HEALTHeWV (HeWV) program has been helping West Virginia’s rural healthcare clinics make the change from paper to electronic records. HEALTHeWV is funded by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) and operates from the National Technology Transfer Center (NTTC) at Wheeling Jesuit University.

The NTTC’s Office of Health Technology Programs offered two educational seminars in March on electronic health records in the Southern part of the state to assist health professionals in learning more about EHRs and the HeWV program.

The seminars focused on how EHRs equip clinics and health care professionals with the tools to improve efficiency, quality of care and reimbursement for services. Speakers included: Chad Turner, MD - Cabin Creek Health Systems, Debbie Enigk, Administrator - Mercer Health Right, Mazharullah Shaik, MD, MBA, CPEHR - HEALTHeWV, and Kathy Platter, RN, MSN, CPHQ - HEALTHeWV.

Clinic representatives shared their experience of converting from paper to electronic health records. The HeWV staff explained how their electronic health records program is unique, provided a demonstration of the EHR and discussed features and future enhancements.

CLC e-Missions Go Global

A group of Korean educators in New York City experienced the thrill of a Challenger Learning Center® e-Mission™ in February when Wheeling Jesuit’s CLC hosted an online workshop at New York’s St. John’s University.

The Korean teachers linked to the University and participated in two distance-learning scenarios offered through the Challenger Learning Center. The two scenarios were coordinated by CLC Director Jackie Shia, who was onsite for the missions.

Wheeling Jesuit University student Soo Kyung Chung served as the interpreter for the mission.

“This was a great example of how Wheeling Jesuit University plays a part in the global effort of science to transcend geographic boundaries and languages,” said Shia.

CLC e-Missions are open to anyone with videoconferencing capability and computers. They provide a unique window to the world as they enhance teamwork and critical thinking for all ages and diverse groups.
Grade School Beneficiary of BOLD Student Project

Thanks to the research project of a Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Leadership and Development (BOLD) student, one parochial grade school will receive updated computers for its student lab.

Glen Dale, West Virginia native Mary Jo Patrello ’09 undertook as a final research project to write a grant application for St. Francis Xavier in Moundsville, W.Va. Patrello knew the principal of the grade school, Catherine Frame, for many years and became aware of her need to update the computer system.

The grant that Patrello obtained for the school was a challenge grant for $20,000, so that the school has to raise $10,000 more to receive the total $30,000 figure requested by Patrello. This money allows the school to purchase a mobile computer lab, which can be moved on a cart to classrooms as needed. The expected technology purchase increases the small school’s digital power by 30 computers.

“We are grateful to Mary Jo for choosing our school for her college project,” said Frame. “We wrote two other grants ourselves but were not awarded the funds. So we are very excited and thrilled that she was successful.”

Patrello chose the BOLD program “because it was just 15 months of time. It’s an awesome program, the way you go through BOLD with the same 15 people – the cohort – made it great. It helped me to do what I needed to do to complete my schoolwork and this final grant project.”

BOLD Degree Leads to Winery Business

Good leadership involves many skills and requires determination. Adult students enrolled in WJU’s Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Leadership Development (BOLD) program know this and are willing to put in the time and effort to earn a degree that promises them a clear advantage in business and the community.

One local graduate of the program, Rebecca “Becky” Black of Eastern Ohio, successfully opened her own winery as a result of her degree work. She graduated in 2003 and her final project on paper was developing a winery. Today, she and her husband are the proud owners of a winery, Black Sheep Vineyard.

A native of Illinois, Black moved to the Wheeling area in 1998 because of her husband John’s work in the coal industry. They settled in Adena, Ohio.

“When my husband and I lived in Southern Illinois, there were many wine trails and we would go on them on the weekends for fun. We really enjoyed tasting the different wines that grapes produced,” explained Black. In fact, the couple found the whole idea of grape growing and wine producing compelling.

“When I saw the farm property, I realized right away the winery opportunity. I told my husband, ‘This is a great place for a winery.’ He wasn’t quite as enthused replying, “yeah, right!”’

“About the same time I enrolled in the BOLD program. I again thought of the winery project and decided to do the research and business plan for my senior project.”

Black can’t say enough about the program. “It’s an adult program that appealed to me immediately when I heard about it and it didn’t disappoint me.”

As part of her project, Black sent a survey out to wineries across Ohio and came up with a viable plan. The couple then went on to buy vines each year for the past five years to reach their current total of 750 grape producing vines.

In fall of 2008, the Black Sheep Vineyard produced enough grapes to make about 500 gallons of wine. Black Sheep Vineyard opened its public tasting room in November 2008, offering eight wines from the 2007 vintage.

The youthful men’s basketball team finished its 2008-09 campaign with a third place finish at the WVIAC tournament.

Under second year Head Coach Dan Sancomb, the Cards finished 10-10 in the conference and 14-16 overall. Seven new faces joined the 14-man roster this season, with seniors Maqsood Harrington and Derek Wise providing leadership to the young squad.

The most impressive win of the season came in a double overtime victory at home against Fairmont, where the Cards were down 17 points with a little over three minutes left to play in regulation and battled back to record the win. In the conference tourney, the Cards knocked off top seed West Virginia State.

Freshman Cedric Harris was named the WVIAC Freshman of the Year. He averaged 19.7 points per game, 5.7 assists a game and 3.8 rebounds a game. He was also selected to the All-WVIAC Tournament Team, All-WVIAC Freshman Team and Second Team All-WVIAC.

Two Lady Cards Receive Post Season Accolades

The Lady Cards finished the season 12th in the conference with a 12-16 overall record.

Two members of the squad were recognized for their hard work throughout the season. Senior Shayla Holenka and junior Lindsey Stuckey were selected WVIAC Honorable Mention honorees. Holenka averaged nearly 12 points and four rebounds a game. Stuckey averaged 10 points and 4.1 rebounds a game.

Successful in the classroom once again this year, the Lady Cards boasted a team grade point average of 3.43. Seven members of the squad were on the Dean’s list and three carried perfect 4.0 GPAs for both semesters.
Basketball Alumni Honored

Wheeling Jesuit University retired the jersey of former Lady Cardinal hoop star and recognized two men's basketball teams from the 70s during a basketball game in February.

Jackie (Ernest) Reinbeau ’89 had her jersey retired during ceremonies on Feb. 21. The Lady Card standout scored 1,681 points and was two-time WVIAF First-Team performer, first-team Jesuit All-American and team MVP in 1989. When she graduated she held the record for most points in a single game - 39 and still holds team records for most field goals in a game at 15, most points in a season, 589, highest season average, 22.2, most free throw attempts, 278, and most free throws made, 205.

Also honored were members of the 1974-75 and 1975-76 men's basketball teams who were coached by Paul Baker. These teams recorded the University's first back-to-back 20 win seasons.

In 1974-75, the Cards posted a 23-11 record. A year later, the 1975-76 squad racked up 24 wins and just eight losses. Mike Barnes ’76 and Tom Bechtel ’73, then assistant coach, were on hand for the evening’s festivities. Members of those two Cardinal teams included: John Beilein, John Stopper, Barnes, Kevin Huffman, Stephen Hydock, James Kelly, Dennis Schwartz, Craig Swanson, Rod Gaddy, Bob Narrish, Dan Wilson, Michael Joram, Phillip Thompson, Leroy Wilson and Joseph Harkins. Also a member of the team was Robert Kincaid, now deceased.

Swim Teams Continue Success

The Wheeling Jesuit University Men's and Women's Swimming Program experienced a rebirth this season.

"Two summers ago we had two students returning to Wheeling Jesuit, this year we boasted 24 on the team," said Head Coach Rick West. Both the men's and women's teams won more dual meets than the past five seasons combined. The women garnered wins against Fairmont, Frostburg and Urbana. The men ended the season with a 7-5 record.

Several individuals won team awards this year. The Freshman of the Year awards went to Andrea Fitzgibbon and Max Queale. The Women's Coach's Award went to senior captain Ali Hengesbach. The Shotwell Award (Named after Wheeling Jesuit's first Head Coach) went to Matt Bartoszek for the men's coach's award. The Swimmers of the Year went to Kevin Rico and Chelsea Guiseppi.

The Cardinals graduated four seniors this season -- Bartoszek, Rico, Hengesbach and Sara Bell. However, West welcomed the largest freshman class in the school's history in late August. He expects 25 freshmen and transfers to be a part of the 2009-10 squad.
Women’s Track and Field Finishes Fourth

Behind the performances of two sophomores, the Lady Cards took fourth place honors at the WVIAC Conference Track Meet with 82 points.

Sophomores Emily Taylor and Kate McCormick combined for 51 points. Taylor placed first in the shot put, discus throw and hammer throw, while her teammate, McCormick was second in the triple jump, third in the 100-meter hurdles, sixth in the long jump and third in the heptathlon.

Sophomore Sarah Campanelli earned the WVIAC Women’s Track Athlete of the Year in non-traditional fashion. The award is given to the athlete with the highest individual point totals for the indoor and outdoor seasons combined. She scored enough points during the indoor season to secure this award without competing in the outdoor season.

Campanelli qualified for the NCAA Division II Indoor National Championships in the 800-meter run and the mile.
Posting just six wins during an injury riddled spring, the baseball program graduated its inaugural class.

“It is with the utmost respect and appreciation that I say goodbye to our graduating seniors who completed their college baseball careers this past season,” said Coach Terry Edwards. “It was a long and difficult journey for them. They will always hold a special place in my heart for having started their journey in 2005 and seeing it to completion 2009. The effort, commitment and self-discipline they exhibited will prove to be assets as they pursue various careers.”

The Cardinals suffered three key injuries this season and struggled to achieve a 6-35 overall record. Junior pitcher Noah Mull led Division II with 15 strikeouts per nine innings and finished second among all NCAA Divisions. He also was named the WVIAC pitcher of the week on April 20. That week he propelled the Cards to a shutout win over rival West Liberty where he scattered eight hits, while striking out 10 hitters.

Mull and senior catcher Anthony Gianni earned WVIAC Honorable Mention honorees.

Lacrosse Team Boasts Winning Season

In his first year at the helm, Head Coach Jay Sothoron navigated the team to an 8-4 overall record with the 11th toughest schedule in NCAA Division II.

The Cards finished 16th in team offense with 10.7 goals per game and 10th in team defense.

Junior Jack Malone led the charge with 20 goals and 32 assists. He finished fourth in assists and 12th in points in NCAA Division II. Junior goalie Joe Sims finished ninth in saves percentage.

The lacrosse team will join the East Coast Conference next year, the largest and most competitive conference for lacrosse.

Baseball Struggles Through Tough Spring

In his first year at the helm, Head Coach Jay Sothoron navigated the team to an 8-4 overall record with the 11th toughest schedule in NCAA Division II.

The Cardinals suffered three key injuries this season and struggled to achieve a 6-35 overall record. More than 265 graduates took part in Wheeling Jesuit University’s 51st commencement May 16. Members of the class of 1959, who celebrated their 50th anniversary, were on hand to congratulate each of the graduates.

After the awarding of degrees to the graduates from all over the United States and three foreign countries, the valedictorian, Marissa A. Smith of Martins Ferry, Ohio, delivered her address. Smith, a political and economic major and a Laut Scholar, encouraged her fellow graduates to examine their meaning of success and to seek to become individuals who are not just successful in their chosen career, but in life.

Other student awards distributed at commencement include the Henry F. Paul Medals for highest four-year averages, which went to Smith (bachelor of arts) and Kasey L. Jividen (bachelor of science). Medals for second highest award went to: Jenna Derrico (bachelor of arts) and Kelly L. Lewis (bachelor of science). The Anthony T. Basil Medals recognizing the top adult education graduates were awarded to Cynthia C. Barrick and Jennifer A. Crouch.

The Frank R. Haig, S.J. Science Award was given to Jividen; the Katherine Fouts Medal was given to Hugh Mulvey III; the Mary Woomer Medal was given to Valerie Grimes; and the Archbishop John J. Swint Medal was given to Daniel Swan.

University President the Rev. Julio Giulietti, S.J. presented Dr. Paul Orr, professor Emeritus of English, with the distinguished Founder’s Medal for his efforts over the years at making the University an “institution of distinction.” Orr taught at WJU from 1956 through 1999.

Two alumni, Sr. Joanne Gonter ’59 and Steve Haid ’63, were presented honorary degrees by the University. Suzanne “Suzy” Broadhurst, director of corporate giving for Pittsburgh-based Eat’n Park Hospitality Group, delivered the commencement address and also received an honorary degree.
Weekend Magic Brings Together

More than 500 alumni and guests enjoyed a weekend of friendship and fun as Wheeling Jesuit University celebrated its biggest Alumni Weekend ever and honored the class of 1959 with its Golden Anniversary.

“We are so pleased with the weekend,” said Kelly Klubert ’85, director of Alumni Relations. Klubert is glad that so many turned out for this very special year -- the University’s first 50th class anniversary celebration. “In addition to honoring this first graduating class, we are pleased that so many alumni from the various classes came home to spend time with friends and recall fun times.”

She suggested that attendees spread the word about how much fun it is to return to campus and relive the memories, “it’s magic that happens every year.”

One of the big memories for the class of 1984 and other classes from the 80s was the band, the Ashcats. The band reunited for the Saturday evening concert in Troy Theater, entertaining all WJU partygoers with a blast from the past.

“The Ashcats delivered like never before,” said Dick Riley, vice president of Alumni Council and organizer of the concert. “They’ve aged musically like a fine wine; the Ashcats Movie, the concert and the whole weekend experience was beyond mere words!”
But there was more than dancing going on as the class of 1984 raised $2,500 toward faculty grants, and the class of 1964 developed and sold a nostalgic DVD of their WJU experience that sold well enough to raise more than $3,000 for the University. This 1964 DVD is still available in the Alumni Office. The Class of 1974 also announced it has endowed its class scholarship and will award the first scholarship in the fall of 2010.

“What a fabulous weekend! The Ashcats rocked, the Ratt was packed and judging from the amount of laughter - everyone had a great time,” said Scott Gallagher, Alumni Council president. “A special thank you to the alumni relations/advancement team, physical plant staff, the Ashcats, Parkhurst and all of the alumni volunteers and class agents for making this the best Alumni Weekend ever.”

Recipients of Rev. James O’Brien, S.J. Award, given by Alumni Council to young graduates, went to Ryan Aaron, Esq. ’99 of Charleston, W.Va. and Jason Culley, DDS ’99 of Columbus, Ohio. The Rev. Clifford M. Lewis, S.J. Award, which recognizes extraordinary service, contribution and dedication to the University, was presented to Jim Welsh ’00 of McMurry, PA.

The St. Ignatius Distinguished Alumni Award recognizing a graduate who exemplifies the Jesuit ideals of extraordinary competence and personal compassion in one’s chosen profession went to Mark Gresham ’84, for excellence in the publishing field. Sr. Karen Bland ’94 received the Rev. Pedro Arrupe S.J. Distinguished Alumni Award for her dedication to serving the poor.

For those who plan ahead, WJU has booked June 4-6, 2010 for its next alumni weekend and details will be released soon.

Dear Alumni & Friends,

On behalf of Wheeling Jesuit University, I am honored to acknowledge and thank the many donors who have chosen to support the University through corporate, foundation, and individual donations. Your support ensures that our Jesuit ideals and mission, to be men and women for and with others, remain vibrant today and for generations to come.

As a 1966 alumnus, I hope you will join me in embracing the many good works that are happening at Wheeling Jesuit. We are blessed with outstanding students, employees, and alumni, and our academic programs and facilities are second to none. As I read through the many names listed in the 2008-2009 Honor Roll of Donors, I am grateful that so many believe in what we are doing at Wheeling Jesuit and have shown their support by giving back to our University.

Now more than ever, our students need all the support that we can provide, and every donor is an integral part of our collective success. Given the increasingly important role that private support plays, every gift, no matter the size, is especially meaningful.

I applaud you, our donors, for your commitment, as your gifts positively impact our students – the future leaders and innovators of our World. It is my hope that you continue your generous support of Wheeling Jesuit in the coming year.

I invite you to return to our beautiful campus and participate in as many events and programs as your busy schedule permits. Together we will continue to make a difference in the World and in the lives of the students who cross our campus.

Again, please accept my sincere thanks for your generous support.

Sincerely,

Wheeling Jesuit University announced in May a new scholarship fund has been seeded through the generosity of the Aluise Family of Huntington. The Aluise Family Scholarship will fund scholarships to qualified St. Joseph’s Central Catholic High School graduates.

“We thank the Aluise family, especially Joe and his son John for their forward thinking action. This scholarship will go on forever,” said Kelly Klubert, director of Alumni Relations. “These two men show extraordinary vision, generosity and commitment to their hometown, their high school, and to Jesuit education, and we thank them.”

The announcement was made May 29 at Huntington St. Joseph’s and both donors attended the event. Two members of the Huntington St. Joseph’s class of 2009 were chosen to receive this year’s scholarship — Maria Phillips and Joseph Burgett.

A longtime resident of Huntington, Joseph Aluise said that 22 members of his family have graduated from St. Joseph’s.

“Because we have a longstanding relationship with St. Joseph’s, we wanted to do something appropriate to benefit our parish and school in a unique way,” explained John Aluise, a retired professor from the University of North Carolina and a 1964 graduate of Wheeling Jesuit. “For those of us who had an opportunity to earn our education at WJU, we received far more than a typical college education. We received an education in values.”

John Aluise received his doctorate from the University of North Carolina in 1982, and was on the faculty in the UNC School of Medicine for 17 years as a healthcare management educator. He also spent 25 years of his career working with Dr. Edward Shahady ’60, to develop Family Medicine education programs at Akron City Hospital and the University of North Carolina. He now does organizational consulting.

“In business, if you really want to satisfy your consumer you offer more than you promise. Wheeling Jesuit University offers more than just a college education, it delivers an opportunity to mature. I’m pleased to be able to assist others to have the chance I did in college.”

He also mentioned that the family had a recent graduate from the University, his cousin, Huntington resident Dennis Cole, who is a member of the class of 2006.

“We hope this scholarship will benefit others so they too can realize the Jesuit difference in education,” he said.

The scholarship fund is open to other Huntington residents, friends and donors and welcomes further charitable gifts. Those who would want to contribute to the fund should contact the Wheeling Jesuit University Office of Institutional Advancement at 304-243-8141 or 1-800-888-2586.

Philadelphia Alumni Chapter
Endows and Awards Scholarship

Members of the Philadelphia Alumni Chapter awarded the first Rev. Charles Currie, S.J. Philadelphia Alumni Scholarship this summer to Tommy Pie’ of St. Clairsville, Ohio.

After more than a decade of fund raisers, the group reached the $25,000 level and made the initial award to the student during the 2009-10 academic year.

The Philadelphia Chapter will award the scholarship annually to the child, grandchild, niece, or nephew of a Philadelphia alumnus/a. The applicant also must reside or have resided in the Pennsylvania Southeast/five county region for more than 50 percent of his or her life. In the event there is not a candidate from the Philadelphia area, the Chapter will consider a legal child, grandchild, niece, or nephew of a Pennsylvania resident. Preference will be given to students who are juniors or seniors at the University.

“We are so pleased to make this first-ever award to Tommy Pie’, the son of Tom Pie’ ’77, a Philadelphia native. He is a deserving student whom we know will excel in the classroom and be involved in the lifeblood of the campus,” said Marguerite Fritsch, treasurer for the alumni chapter.

Acting President J. Davitt McAteer said, “We are grateful to all those who helped make this scholarship possible. This is a very beautiful gift from our Philadelphia alumni and we hope other alumni chapters will follow their lead to help deserving students attend Wheeling Jesuit.”

The Chapter raises about $2,500 each year at its annual golf scramble — the Pieco Open and other fund raising throughout the year. The golf scramble and dinner attracts 100 alumni and friends each year. The scramble was re-named two years ago to honor the legacy of Michael Scannapieco ’77, a founding member of the alumni chapter.

Selection for the 2010-11 scholarship recipient will begin in January 2010. Any alumnus/a from the Philadelphia area with a legal child, grandchild, niece or nephew interested in attending Wheeling Jesuit University is encouraged to request an application for the scholarship. Contact the WJU Financial Aid Office or the Alumni Office at 1-800-888-2586 or alumni@wju.edu for more information about the scholarship.

Members of the class of 2009 launched their fund raising efforts in March 2009 during the annual Grad Fair.

Class representatives asked their peers to recognize the value of their Jesuit education and to feel inspired to give back to their alma mater. They were determined to raise the bar of participation among young alumni. Thanks to their efforts, the class collected pledges totaling $6,750.

The Cardinal 5 Society is a group of seniors who have committed to give $10 each year during the next five years for a total gift of $50.

“Members of the senior class wanted a way to thank our faculty and staff for the support and direction that we received during the past four years—Cardinal 5 gives them the opportunity to participate and support their alma mater,” said Valerie Grimes ’09, past student government president.

Three new members of the Cardinal 5 Society.

Matching Gifts Increase the Value of Your Gift

Your gift to Wheeling Jesuit University might be more valuable than you think.

Many employers want to partner with their employees in support of their favorite nonprofit organization. In fact, more than 16,000 companies and corporate foundations currently match employees’ charitable gifts.

Corporate matching-fund gifts are an important source of revenue for Wheeling Jesuit University's Annual Fund. In some cases, corporate support matches, doubles, and even triples the gifts we receive from their employees.

If you are interested in partnering with your employer to make a matching gift contribution to Wheeling Jesuit, inform your human resources department. After you complete the appropriate form, return it to:

Wheeling Jesuit University, Office of Institutional Advancement
316 Washington Avenue, Wheeling, WV  26003
Attention:  Sharon Perry

We will remit the form to your employer. If you have questions about matching gift companies, contact Perry at (304) 243-8172.

During its 25th anniversary in 1999, members of the class of 1974 set a goal to establish and fund a scholarship to benefit deserving students attending Wheeling Jesuit.

During Alumni Weekend 2009, the class announced it had endowed the scholarship and plans to continue to build on the $23,500 total over the next five years. The class has set a goal to increase the scholarship endowment to $50,000 by its 40th class reunion in 2014.

Lead by Hugh Keany, John Giese and Jim Osborne, the class plans to continue building the endowed scholarship so that more money can be awarded. They are forming a larger committee to work with classmates during the next five years to achieve their goal.

Giese said, “I remember Hugh at the podium (in 1999) pledging the initial amount. His enthusiasm and commitment got everyone to back the idea. Well, it took a little longer than anticipated, but we hung in there and our classmates came through!”

The first Class of 1974 Scholarship recipient will be awarded in the summer of 2010.

Alumni, friends and faculty giving to Wheeling Jesuit University resulted in a total of $1,301,073 during the 2008-2009 fiscal year. Wheeling Jesuit alumni donated more than 28 percent of that total – a 7 percent increase from last year.

WJU faculty, administration and staff, through their generous contributions, awarded $22,000 in scholarship funds. Twelve students in financial need received $2,000 each towards their tuition, many of whom would not have been able to return if not for the support of WJU employees.

Wheeling Jesuit University extends its thanks to all who gave during the 2008-09 campaign. With the continued partnership from alumni, friends and faculty, the University can continue to support Wheeling Jesuit students and their dreams to make the community and world a better place.
Troy Legacy Society

Your Opportunity to Leave a Lasting Legacy

Wheeling Jesuit’s planned giving initiative — “Celebrating the Past... Securing the Future” welcomed seven new members since its launch in the fall of 2008.

This endowment project is focusing on members of the classes of 1959-1968, by encouraging them to include WJU in their estate making plans. Through the efforts of class representatives, members of Wheeling Jesuit’s earliest classes are responding.

As of June 30, Wheeling Jesuit has more than 50 members of the Troy Legacy Society.

Becoming a member of the Troy Legacy Society is as simple as making a provision in your will, gift annuity, retirement funds, life insurance policies, trusts or other planned gifts that will someday result in a gift to the University’s endowment.

A WJU education instills students with the passion, knowledge, and purpose, not only to do great things—but extraordinary things.

Your generosity further enhances the University's mission of providing a Jesuit education to students who otherwise could not afford it. In other words, your gift can be viewed as a safe investment in a WJU education.

We hope that you will come back to campus soon to see how your contributions have made a difference!
